Project Overview

Dunns Valley Solar (200 MW) is a solar energy project proposed for development approximately 20 kilometres north of the Town of Thessalon, near Dunn's Valley in the District of Algoma. Neoen and Garden River First Nation have partnered to co-develop, co-own and co-operate the project in a 50% equity partnership.

The project was awarded a 20-year contract by Ontario's grid operator– the Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO)– in its Long-Term 2 Window 1 energy procurement in April 2026. Dunns Valley Solar is set to be Ontario's largest solar farm. Once constructed, the project will supply more than 380,000 MWh of energy to the power grid, equivalent to the annual electricity consumption of more than 40,000 homes across the region.
